FOREWORD

Here is your yearbook! For some it represents your final year in Bangs High School, and for others it is the symbol of one more school year filled with activities and memories.

Enjoy this reminder, for it is the product of work which was only made more pleasant by the memories brought to mind.

There just aren't words to express the feeling of loss that is in each of our hearts because of the passing of these two classmates and friends, for each of us has his personal memories. But, to all, they were friends, and it is to Vickie Ann Findley and Sammy Paul Pruett that this, the '65 Dragon, is dedicated.

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for Thou art with me."

--Psalms 23:4

IN DEDICATION
AND IN MEMORY OF

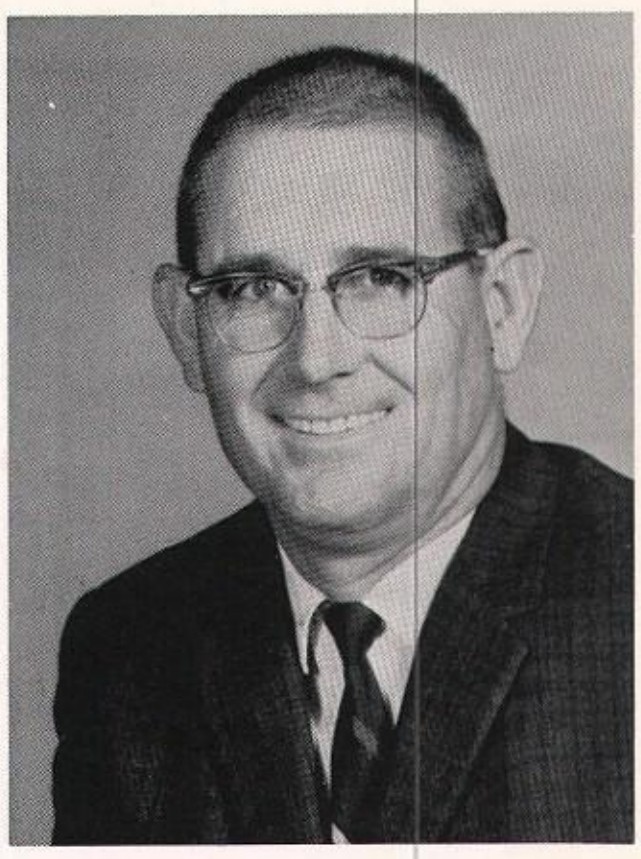
VICKIE ANN FINDLEY
Nov. 24, 1945 - Aug. 8, 1964

SAMMY PAUL PRUETT
Apr. 14, 1945 - Feb. 17, 1965

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE



This 1965 annual is a brief history of some of the happenings at Bangs School. In the years to come some will look back on this history as an accomplishment, others with a feeling of dissatisfaction because the year was not very profitable.

All of you students that are leaving high school this year will not be able to do anything if you are dissatisfied with the year's accomplishments, while some of the others have another chance.

You that have been leaders in the right direction I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your fine work. You are the students that we will miss. You that have taken other paths, I wish we could have found some way to create in you a desire for the better things in life.

I would also like to thank the people in the community that have helped to make this a better school. Without these people the task of education would be impossible.

BANGS HIGH

May these words bring to mind many fond memories in the years to come.

In the heart of grand old Texas
Is Bangs High, Bangs High;
Dear to students and to exes,
Bangs High, Bangs High;
And no matter where we roam
Back to you we'll ever come;
For we'll always call you home,
Bangs High, Bangs High;
For we'll always call you home,
Bangs High.

You have taught us how to love you,
Bangs High, Bangs High;
As the stars in Heaven above you,
Bangs High, Bangs High;
Shine forever in the blue
So we'll always be to you
Just as loyal and as true,
Bangs High, Bangs High;
Just as loyal and as true,
Bangs High.

This is your '65 Dragon. We hope that you derive much pleasure from the reliving of the wonderful times spent within the walls, on the athletic fields, on trips--all school activities that contributed to the feeling that you have for this, our Bangs High.

A yearbook is no simple venture, but the memories that are contained between these pages make the tears, work, worry, and ink-stained fingers worthwhile. No picture or story can recapture in full the happiness of the football games, the excitement of basketball, the thrill of track, the smell of textbooks, the sternness and gaiety of teachers, or the friendships of classmates; but this yearbook is the result of our trying, with the best of our ability, to make a remembrance of our school days. May the events, accomplishments, and happiness enjoyed in high school be the firm foundation for full, useful, joyful lives; and may we look at this book in later years in fond remembrance--not longing.
